find your feet

Community Information Evening
7.30pm, 29 February, Brodick Hall

In autumn 2012, Scottish Ballet will be visiting Arran to deliver four full days of dance workshops, talks, events and taster performances in a project designed to bring Scottish Ballet activities to community participants of all ages and abilities.

The final programme of events for Arran will be created following a community information evening which will be held on 29 February at 7.30pm in Brodick Hall.

We would like to welcome representatives from local groups and interested members of the public to attend to hear more about Find Your Feet, and to meet local groups who would like to engage with us and generate ideas for activities.

The project can cover a range of activities and events linked to Scottish Ballet's productions and focus on creative dance, ballet technique, sport and dance, music, costume and design.

We hope you can join us on 29 February at Brodick Hall.

If you are unable to attend but would like to know more, please contact Scottish Ballet on helen.coughtrie@scottishballet.co.uk or 0141 331 6297.

Project Background

Scottish Ballet's Find Your Feet project has been funded by Creative Scotland's First in a Lifetime fund. As part of this project Scottish Ballet will visit seven communities across Scotland: Islay, Mull, Arran, Greenock, Perth, Fort William and Dumfries & Galloway to celebrate the Year of Creative Scotland.
